 REQUESTED BY THE COURT

THIRD INTERIM REPORT AND PETITION FOR INSTRUCTIONS OF RECEIVER, THOMAS A. SEAMAN

Date: September 12, 2016

Ctrlm: 4B

Judge: Hon. Cynthia Bashant

24 TO THIS HONORABLE COURT, ALL PARTIES, AND THEIR 25 COUNSEL OF RECORD:

26 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on September 12, 2016, in Courtroom 4B
 27 of the above-entitled Court, located at 221 West Broadway, San Diego, California 28 92101, and in accordance with: (a) this Court's February 12, 2015 "(1) Preliminary Injunction, Appointment of a Permanent Receiver, and Related Orders; and
 (2) Order Vacating Hearing on Preliminary Injunction" (the "Permanent Appointment Order"); (b) Civil Local Rule 66.1(e); (c) this Court's May 8, 2015
 "Order Granting Motion for Order in Aid of Receivership" (the "Order in Aid"); and

1 (d) this Court's June 7, 2016 "Order Approving Joint Stipulation to Substitute 2 Thomas A. Seaman as Permanent Receiver" (the "Substitution Order"), Thomas 3 Seaman, the recently appointed successor receiver (the "Receiver") to Kristen A.
4 Janulewicz, the Court-appointed permanent receiver for Total Wealth Management, 5 Inc. ("Total Wealth") and its subsidiaries and affiliates, including but not limited to 6 Altus Capital Management, LLC ("Altus Capital") (collectively, the "Receivership 7 Entities" or "Entities"), will and hereby does submit this Third Interim Report (the 8 "Interim Report"), covering the period from February 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016 9 (the "Reporting Period") to this Court:

10 I. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND REGARDING 11 APPOINTMENT OF SUCCESSOR RECEIVER.

12 On February 12, 2015, this Court entered the Permanent Appointment Order, 13 appointing a receiver for the Receivership Entities. On May 8, 2015, the Court 14 entered its Order in Aid, which provided for additional administrative relief and, in 15 part, governs the Receiver's administration of the instant receivership. Most 16 recently, on June 7, 2016, the Court entered the Substitution Order, whereby the 17 Thomas A. Seaman was substituted for Kristen A. Janulewicz as the receiver in this 18 action. Throughout her tenure as the original receiver in this action, Ms. Janulewicz 19 was an employee of Mr. Seaman. As Receiver, Mr. Seaman succeeds to all of the 20 original receiver's duties and powers, as more specifically defined in the Permanent 21 Appointment Order, the Order in Aid, and this Court's previous orders on the 22 Receiver's earlier Interim Reports, among other things.¹

23 II. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT.

24 As detailed in prior Interim Reports to the Court, and as further detailed 25 below, the Receiver has made substantial progress in his efforts to identify and 26 recover available assets of the Entities ("Receivership Assets" or "Assets") and to 27

28 ¹ For ease of reference, Mr. Seaman and Ms. Janulewicz are occasionally collectively referred to herein as "the Receiver."

1 understand and account for the business and financial activities of the Entities in 2 anticipation of, among other things, developing a claims and distribution process for 3 submission to this Court in the coming months. While the Receiver's work is 4 ongoing, the status of his efforts and conclusions² developed from his review and 5 analysis of materials recovered to date are appropriate for an interim update. Since 6 the submission of the Receiver's Second Interim Report, the Receiver has:

- 7 x Recovered additional Receivership Assets, in cash, in the amount of 8 $386,881.03, bringing the total cash on hand for the benefit and 9 administration of the Entities to approximately $3,467,587.51.
- 10 x Completed an analysis of Total Wealth's receipt of revenue sharing, 11 management, and other fees from entities in which Total Wealth invested 12 funds received from investors. In some instances, these fees were received 13 from money-losing or insolvent funds in which the Entities were invested.
14 Such revenue sharing fees totaled approximately $1.8 million.
- 15 x Confirmed that Defendant Jacob Cooper ("Cooper"), either individually or 16 via an entity under his control, separately received approximately 17 $775,000 in revenue sharing, management, and other fees from entities in 18 which Total Wealth invested funds received from investors.
- 19 x Collected $80,000 from the Court-approved disposition of $260,000 in 20 proceeds remaining from the bankruptcy sale of Metropolitan Coffee and 21 Concession Company, LLC ("Metro Coffee") and related assets, to which 22 multiple creditors had asserted claims.
- 23 x Commenced litigation in this Court, now styled Seaman v. Private 24 Placement Capital Notes II, LLC, et al., to recover tens of millions of 25

26 ² Due to the volume and nature of the information recovered, the nature and 27 complexity of the matters and transactions to which they relate, and the 28 Receiver's need to complete his work, the Receiver's conclusions are presented herein are preliminary. The Receiver may modify such conclusions after further investigation and analysis.

1 dollars invested in what the Receiver determined to be a Ponzi-like 2 investment scheme conducted by Private Placement Capital Notes II, LLC 3 ("PPCN") and its principal, Tony Hartman ("Hartman").

4 x Commenced litigation in the San Diego Superior Court, now styled 5 Seaman v. Lively, et al., against pre-receivership counsel in connection 6 with Total Wealth's commission of securities fraud, as determined in the 7 related administrative proceeding styled In re Total Wealth Management, 8 Inc., et al., File No. 3-15842 (the "Administrative Proceeding").

9 The Receiver's charge includes, among other things: (1) assuming control of 10 the Entities and their Assets; (2) conducting such investigation and discovery as 11 necessary to identify and locate outstanding Receivership Assets; (3) preserving and 12 preventing the dissipation of Receivership Assets; and (4) providing an accounting 13 to the Court and plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") 14 regarding the business and financial activities of the Receivership Entities. As 15 reflected in this and prior Reports, the Receiver and the Receiver's counsel of 16 record, Allen Matkins Leck Gamble Mallory & Natsis LLP ("Allen Matkins"), have 17 diligently pursued these goals since the inception of the receivership. A summary of 18 the Receiver's efforts, analysis, supplemental conclusions, and recommendations 19 developed since the submission of the Second Interim Report, is presented below.³

20 III. GENERAL HISTORY.

21 The Receiver invites the Court and interested parties to review the following 22 materials⁴ for a general summary of the relevant facts underlying the above-23 captioned receivership case and the activities of the Receiver and the Receiver's 24 professionals:

25
 26 27 ³ Please note that the omission from this Interim Report of matters addressed in 28 previous Reports submitted by the Receiver does not reflect a determination that such matters are no longer pertinent or that any previously presented conclusions have been modified or withdrawn.

⁴ Materials are available on the Receiver's website, totalwealthreceiver.com.

1 IV. SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES AND EFFORTS SINCE SUBMISSION
2 OF SECOND INTERIM REPORT.

3 A. Marshaling And Preserving Receivership Assets.

4 1. Accounting.

5 Exhibits A through D, appended to this Interim Report, include a detailed 6 general ledger for the receivership, a profit and loss statement for the Reporting 7 Period, a profit and loss statement for the period from the inception of the 8 receivership through June 30, 2016, and a receivership balance sheet ending June 9 30, 2016. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver collected an additional 10 $386,881.03, in cash, including $80,000 in Metro Coffee sales proceeds (addressed 11 below), along with proceeds from investment fund liquidations in the amount of 12 $306,509.03.

13 As of the date of this Interim Report, the Receiver has made disbursements in 14 the amount of $424,807.92, including professional fees for the Receiver, counsel, 15 and the Receiver's tax professionals, in the aggregate amount of $415,741.42. As 16 reflected in the Receiver's prior submissions to the Court, many of these fees were 17 incurred in the period prior to the Reporting Period, but were paid during the 18 Reporting Period after the entry of an appropriate Court order. As of June 30, 2016, 19 the Receiver was holding cash in the amount of $3,467,587.51 for the benefit and 20 administration of the Entities. Receiver fees incurred during the Reporting Period 21 were approximately $35,000, and attorneys' fees were approximately $130,000.

22 2. Metro Coffee Sales Proceeds.

23 As addressed in the prior Interim Reports, millions in investor funds were 24 invested by the Receivership Entities in Aegis Holding Company (with affiliated 25 entities, "Aegis"), Metro Coffee, and related entities. Metro Coffee operated Peet's 26 Coffee stores in Bay Area Rapid Transit District ("BART") stations in San 27 Francisco, California. As noted in the Initial Report, the Receiver was appointed in 28 the midst of Metro Coffee's Chapter 11 bankruptcy case and during its efforts to

1 dispose of estate property.⁵

2 In an effort to protect against losses associated with Aegis and Metro Coffee 3 over and above the substantial write-off taken in the pre-receivership period, the 4 Receiver worked with the Bankruptcy Court's designated Responsible Person for 5 Metro Coffee to facilitate the sale of Metro Coffee's assets (along with the necessary 6 BART permits, held by Aegis). The Metro Coffee sale was concluded and, the 7 Receiver was transferred $260,000 in proceeds from the sale to hold in trust.

8 Another creditor of Metro Coffee, Strategic Funding, Inc. ("Strategic"), 9 alleged a security interest in these funds equal to or superior to those of the 10 Receivership Entities. The Receiver claimed a super-priority equitable interest in 11 the funds, but confirmed that Strategic's non-contingent, secured interest was valid 12 and potentially superior. Accordingly, and in an effort to ensure that the funds were 13 appropriately shared as between Strategic and the Receiver in a manner that would 14 not unnecessarily deplete receivership estate ("Estate") resources, and with Court 15 approval, the Receiver retained $80,000 for the benefit of the Entities, and Strategic 16 received the remainder.⁶

17 3. Pending Federal and State Court Litigation.

18 The Receiver has also endeavored to protect the Estate from diminution, 19 including via notice to parties believed to be in possession of Receivership Assets 20 (of whatever form), as well as continued participation in all six (6) known federal 21 and state actions where the Receivership Entities are Defendants, or in which 22 Receivership Assets are in issue.⁷ Notices of Pending Receivership have been filed 23

24 ⁵ In re Metropolitan Coffee and Concession Company, LLC, USBC, N.D. Cal.
Case No. 14-44242.

25 ⁶ The Commission and Defendant Cooper also agreed to this allocation of the Metro Coffee sales proceeds.

26 ⁷ The Receiver is aware of the following proceedings: (1) Calderon v. Total 27 Wealth Management, Inc., et al., USDC, SD Cal. Case No. 15-cv-01632-BEN-NLS; (2) Mitchell v. Total Wealth Management, Inc., USDC, SD Cal., Case No.
14 cv-1552-GPC-JLB; (3) Staniforth v. Total Wealth Management, Inc., USDC, 28 SD Cal. Case No. 14 cv-1899-GPC-JLB; (4) Troya v. Total Wealth
Management, Inc., San Diego County Superior Court Case No. 37-2014-

1 in each of the matters identified in footnote 6, below, and the Receiver will continue 2 to participate actively in each of these matters, attending case management and 3 status conferences, and periodically providing written status updates to the judges 4 presiding over these matters. As of the date of this Interim Report, all pending 5 litigation against the Receivership Entities, or in which Receivership Assets are 6 implicated (save for the above-entitled action), is stayed in accordance with the 7 terms of the Permanent Appointment Order.

8 B. Investigation And Discovery.

9 As noted in prior Reports to this Court, the Receivership Entities left no 10 books, records, or computers behind at their offices. Accordingly, all documents 11 obtained and reviewed to date by the Receiver relating to the nature, location, and 12 amount of Receivership Assets and the business and financial activities of the 13 Receivership Entities, were obtained from third party sources, including via an 14 access request to the Commission, direct turn-over demands, document subpoenas, 15 and informal requests. By way of summary, the Receiver issued dozens of formal 16 notices of appointment, along with turn-over requests for Receivership Assets. In 17 addition, the Receiver served dozens of document subpoenas on third parties, 18 including parties believed to be in possession of Receivership Assets and parties in 19 possession of materials directly relating to the business and financial activities of the 20 Receivership Entities.

21 Since the submission of the Second Interim Report, and more recently since 22 the Mr. Seaman's substitution as Receiver, document review and analysis efforts 23 have concentrated on millions of dollars in Receivership Entity losses associated 24 with Aegis in the pre-receivership period, as well as the litigation pending against 25

26
27 _____
28 00012816-CU-PN-CTL; (5) Morin v. Total Wealth Management, Inc., San Diego County Superior Court Case No. 37-2014-00025391-CU-BC-CTL; and (6) Drehler v. Total Wealth Management, Inc., San Diego County Superior Court Case No. 37-2014-00042224-CU-FR-CTL.

1 PPCN, Hartman, and certain pre-receivership counsel to Total Wealth, as detailed 2 further, below.

3 V. OTHER SIGNIFICANT RECEIVERSHIP ACTIVITIES.

4 A. Revenue Sharing Analysis.

5 As reflected in pervious submissions to the Court, the Receiver has confirmed 6 that, in addition to receiving advisory fees from the Altus Funds⁸, Total Wealth 7 received revenue sharing fees from a number of the underlying funds in which the 8 Altus Funds were invested. As of the date of this Report, the Receiver has 9 determined that Total Wealth received the following revenue sharing fees:

- 10 x $459,662.59 paid collectively by three Aegis entities, and Metro 11 Coffee, from 2011 through February 2013;
- 12 x $163,733.88 paid by LJL Funding LLC ("LJL Funding"), an 13 investment common to many of the Altus Funds, from 2010 through 14 February 2014;
- 15 x $532,279.66 paid by PPCN from 2012 through September 2014;
- 16 x $568,406.81 paid by Rainmaker Capital, Inc., from 2009 through 17 August 2014; and
- 18 x $33,480 paid by Pacific West Capital Group from 2010 through 19 September 2012.

20 In other words, from approximately February 2009 through September 2014, 21 Total Wealth received approximately $1.8 million in revenue sharing fees.

22 The records further confirm that Mr. Cooper, too, individually or through 23 Pinnacle Wealth Group ("PWG"), an entity he controlled, received revenue sharing 24 fees totaling approximately $775,000 from 2009 to early 2011. This amount 25

26 ⁸ The "Altus Funds," which are Receivership Entities as a consequence of their 27 common control by and affiliation with Total Wealth and Altus Capital 28 Management, LLC, include Altus Focused Growth Portfolio Series, LP; Altus
Income Portfolio Series, LP; Altus Conservative Portfolio Series, LP; Altus
Moderate Growth Portfolio Series, LP; Altus Moderate Portfolio Series, LP; Altus Growth Portfolio Series, LP; and Altus Capital Opportunity Fund, LP.

1 includes $415,000 paid by Denver Financial Group and/or PPCN, payments from 2 Moneta Capital Management LLC, payments of $307,664.58 from an entity called 3 Novus Investment and its dba, Dynamic Sales, and $52,500 from Jomac, LLC, an 4 entity linked through its principals to the "Life's Good" Ponzi scheme addressed in 5 previous Reports.

6 B. Confirmation Of Receivership Assets Used For Legal Defense.

7 As first addressed in the Receiver's Initial Report, the records obtained to date 8 strongly suggest that certain funds raised from investors were used to pay for the 9 legal defenses of Mr. Cooper and the Receivership Entities.⁹ Specifically, $150,000 10 was paid to the Commission in connection with an anticipated settlement of the 11 Administrative Proceeding, which settlement was later rejected when the 12 Commission learned the payment had been drawn from investor funds. The 13 Commission has since turned over these funds to the Receiver. In addition, at least 14 $367,219.49 was paid in 2014 by the Altus Capital Opportunity Fund ("ACOF") to 15 the Sparer Law Group, pre-receivership counsel for Defendant Cooper, Total 16 Wealth, and ACOF. ACOF also made payments totaling $14,950.64 to the Jacko 17 Law Group, P.C., which appears to have provided services relating to the defense of 18 Defendant Cooper and Total Wealth in the Administrative Proceeding, and which is 19 now a defendant in the Malpractice Action, as defined below. These payments were 20 made by ACOF, and later proportionally charged against the remaining Altus Funds.
21 In the aggregate, the Receiver has accounted for more than $530,000 in funds raised 22 from investors that appear to have been expended in connection with the legal 23 defense of Defendant Cooper and, at least, Total Wealth and ACOF.

24 C. Litigation Against PPCN And Hartman.

25 As reflected in prior submissions to the Court, the Receiver determined that 26 the Altus Funds invested at least $24,000,000 in PPCN under false pretenses, which 27

28 ⁹ This does not include payments to attorneys not associated with litigation defense, such as payments

1 investments were memorialized by the issuance of so-called promissory notes by 2 PPCN. This investment constituted at least 70% of the total investment in PPCN.
3 Moreover, at least $11,200,000 in interest accrued to the Altus Funds in accordance 4 with the promissory notes has not been paid, and instead was added by PPCN to the 5 balance of the Altus Funds' investments as purported "reinvestment." The Receiver 6 previously submitted a request to redeem approximately $16 million in eligible 7 promissory notes to PPCN. The redemption request was ignored.

8 As a consequence of the above, and a determination that PPCN was operating 9 a Ponzi-like investment scheme, the Receiver commenced the action now styled 10 Seaman v. Private Placement Capital Notes II, LLC, et al., USDC, SD Cal. Case No.
11 16-cv-0578 BEN (DHB) (the "PPCN Action") on March 7, 2016. By his 12 prosecution of the PPCN Action, the Receiver seeks to recover more than $20 13 million in principal invested in PPCN, along with interest accrued on the PPCN 14 promissory notes. The PPCN Action was transferred to this Court on March 22, 15 2016 (see PPCN Action Docket No. 4) and the Receiver recently submitted a joint 16 motion to substitute him as the plaintiff in the matter. (See PPCN Action Docket 17 No. 10.) The Receiver has since been substituted for Ms. Janulewicz, the original 18 receiver, as the Plaintiff in this PPCN Action.

19 D. Litigation Against Pre-Receivership Counsel.

20 The judgment entered in the Administrative Proceeding held Total Wealth 21 joint liable with Defendant Cooper for securities fraud arising from, among other 22 things, certain Receivership Entities' representations in offering memoranda and 23 disclosure forms that they "may" receive revenue sharing payments, when in fact 24 such payments were already being received. In other words, the Court in the 25 Administrative Proceeding determined that it was misleading to suggest revenue 26 sharing fees might be paid (as an incentive to place investor funds into a specific 27 investment) when they were, in fact, already being paid.

28

1 The Receiver concluded that Total Wealth's violations of federal securities 2 laws, particularly with respect to its failure to disclose the existence of revenue 3 sharing agreements and their attendant conflicts of interest, were caused or aided 4 and abetted by the advice of some of the Receivership Entities' pre-receivership 5 attorneys, who specifically prepared the disclosure language that led to the judgment 6 in the Administrative Proceeding and who, at the time they prepared such language, 7 knew or reasonably should have known of Total Wealth's revenue sharing practices.

8 As a consequence of the above, on February 3, 2016, the Receiver 9 commenced the action now styled Seaman v. Lively, et al., San Diego Superior 10 Court Case No. 37-2016-00003644-CU-PN-CTL (the "Malpractice Action"), 11 alleging malpractice and related claims against pre-receivership counsel and seeking 12 to recover damages resulting from the legal advice provided. The Receiver has been 13 substituted for Ms. Janulewicz, the original receiver, in the Malpractice Action.

14 E. Confirmation Of Substantial Losses To Investors.

15 In the Receiver's Initial Report, the Receiver expressed the view that 16 investments were subject to substantial losses. The work completed prior to the 17 submission of the First Interim Report confirmed this conclusion. As noted therein, 18 the Receiver determined that the Life's Good, Inc. investment, mentioned in the 19 Initial Report, reflects a loss of approximately $2.4 million. Metro Coffee 20 investments resulted in losses of approximately $3.2 million (including accrued 21 interest), not including the $80,000 recently retained in connection with the sale of 22 Metro Coffee estate assets. Approximately $18 million (including accrued interest) 23 was lost in connection with Aegis. In the aggregate, it appears that investment 24 losses total at least $23,520,000 (including accrued interest).

25 Notably, these estimated losses do not include actual or potential losses 26 associated with PPCN. As noted in prior submissions to the Court, and in the 27 complaint in the PPCN Action, the Receiver has submitted a redemption request to 28 PPCN for approximately $16 million in connection with matured promissory notes.

1 PPCN has neither returned the funds nor even responded to the redemption request.
2 Should the Receiver determine that all outstanding investments in PPCN have been 3 lost, aggregate losses to associated with the Receivership Entities could exceed $44 4 million.

5 F. Development And Proposal Of Claims And Distribution Process.

6 As noted above, as of June 30, 2016, the Receiver held nearly $3.5 million, in 7 cash, for the benefit of the Estate and its investors and creditors. Within the next 8 two months, the Receiver anticipates formulating and proposing a claims and 9 distribution process for Court approval whereby investors and other creditors of the 10 Entities would be able to register their claims for repayment against the 11 Receivership Entities, have those claims processed by the Receiver and his staff, 12 resulting in a recommendation by the Receiver to the Court for the treatment of each 13 claim. At present, the Receiver believes he will have sufficient cash on hand, once a 14 claims process is proposed to and approved by the Court, and undertaken, to make 15 partial distributions to parties with allowed claims.

16 VI. RECEIVER'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

17 While the Receiver's document recovery, review, and analysis efforts remain 18 ongoing, the materials recovered and reviewed to date strongly militate in favor of 19 the continuation of the receivership with, at least, the following goals:

20 A. Continue Receivership Asset Identification And Recovery Efforts.

21 While the records recovered to date are sufficient to provide the Receiver 22 with a detailed understanding of the business and financial activities of the 23 Receivership Entities, their receipt of revenue sharing fees, the nature of and risks 24 associated with investments in PPCN, the involvement of pre-receivership counsel 25 in conduct underlying the judgment in the Administrative Proceeding, and to 26 provide a foundation for the prosecution of the PPCN Action and the Malpractice 27 Action, additional investigation and discovery efforts may yet yield additional 28 benefits to the Receivership Entities, including in potentially identifying additional

1 and recoverable Receivership Assets.¹⁰ The Receiver therefore recommends that the 2 Court allow him to continue his investigation, discovery, and Receivership Asset 3 identification and recovery efforts, including as expressly provided for in the 4 Permanent Appointment Order.

5 B. Submit Further Reports To The Court.

6 In accordance with the Order in Aid, the Receiver expects to submit further 7 interim reports to this Court addressing his progress, findings, conclusions, and 8 further recommendations, approximately every 90 to 120 days.

9 C. Submit Interim Fee Applications.

10 In part as a consequence of administrative delays arising in connection with 11 the Receiver and the Receiver's professionals' First Interim Applications for 12 Payment of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses, and in part because the 13 exigencies of administering the Estate militated in favor of devoting attention 14 elsewhere, the Receiver and associated professionals, including counsel, only 15 recently submitted their respective Second Interim Applications for Payment of Fees 16 and Reimbursement of Expenses (collectively, the "Applications"), for the period 17 from July 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015. The Receiver respectfully requests 18 that the Applications be granted as soon as possible, and expects to resume 19 submissions on a schedule consistent with the Order in Aid, commencing with the 20 submission of another set of Applications in September 2016.

21 VII. CONCLUSION.

22 On the basis of the information presented, above, the Receiver respectfully 23 requests that the Court enter an order:

- 24 1. Accepting the Third Interim Report;
25 2. Instructing the Receiver to continue to administer the Receivership 26 Entities in accordance with the terms of the Permanent Appointment Order;

27 28 ¹⁰ Including, potentially, Assets recoverable in connection with the Aegis and Metro Coffee losses.

SERVED BY U.S. MAIL OR OVERNIGHT MAIL (indicate method for each person or entity served): On August 10, 2016, I served the following person(s) and/or entity(ies) in this case by placing a true and correct copy thereof in a sealed envelope(s) addressed as indicated below. I am readily familiar with this firm's practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it is deposited with the U.S. postal service on that same day in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion for party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than 1 (one) day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.
